Whilst this music is covered by copyright, it is the Lord's music and I, therefore, feel that no charge can be applied to it in the form of royalties where the music is used strictly for Praise and Worship within services or meetings or in outreach ministry. Therefore, such use does not attract such royalties. The outreach through Christian programmes on radio stations and TV come under the category of Outreach Ministry. Any form of commercial use of this music, however, is covered fully by copyright and royalties will apply as under normal conditions.
